

Travel and Transportation Assistance

If finances are preventing you from traveling for your intensive physical therapy session, here are a few gracious organizations that may help you with health-related transportation needs:

Air Care Alliance – Nationwide volunteers perform public benefit flying for health care, patient transport, disaster relief, educational experiences for youth, environmental support, and other missions of public service.

<http://www.aircareall.org>

Angel Flight – Arranges free air transportation for legitimate, charitable, medically related need. Available to individuals and health care organizations.

<http://www.angelflight.com>

Angel Bus – Provides compassionate, non-emergency long-distance ground transportation to patients in need. <http://www.angel-bus.org>

Autism Escapes – Arranges air travel on private jets for families in need of medical care for their children. <http://www.autismescapes.org>

Kids Wings – Provides free air transportation to those in financial need and in medical need of treatment at distant facilities and for whom commercial air transportation is either unaffordable or impractical. <http://www.kidswings.org>

Miracle Flight – Helps families overcome financial obstacles by providing financial assistance so that their seriously ill children can receive proper medical care and to get second opinions. <http://www.miracleflights.org>

National Patient Travel Center – Ensures that no financially needy patient is denied access to distant specialized medical evaluation, diagnosis or treatment for lack of a means of long-distance medical transportation.

<http://www.patienttravel.org>